

- Name: Wade Thornburg
- Hometown: Pickrell, NE
- Year: Junior
- Major: Agribusiness, Banking and Finance Option
- Highlight: Wade has been a true SG standout in 2010. He was one of six students to attend the ASAP District 6 Leadership Conference in Ames, Iowa, this February, where the group did a special presentation on the Cornhusker Compass. Wade also gave up part of his Spring Break to volunteer his time at UNL's Big Red Road Show in Scottsbluff. At the Big Red Road Show, he shared the benefits of joining Scarlet Guard with prospective UNL students. Wade, who is known by his peers as one of SG's most dedicated and personable members, always finds time to volunteer and give 100 percent to all SG activities.
- Campus Activities: Treasurer/Member of Alpha Gamma Sigma; Member of Agriculture Economics Club
- Hobbies: Golfing, Water Skiing, Snow Skiing
- Favorite Quote: "The more you know, the more you know how much you don't know"
- Favorite Thing About SG: The opportunity to meet people outside of your college on campus and the leadership opportunities.
